

Cabins and Cabanas

Small Places for Prayer

Prayer can take place anywhere, yet Jesus challenged his disciples to “enter into their closet” and close their door to seek the Father in secret. Consider turning a room in your house to a prayer room (closet) wholly dedicated and equipped for praying, or build backyard shed with the same purpose. Churches would do well to provide such “retreats” for pastors and lay people.

