

Concordance & Word Studies

We know that many of our readers are not students of the Word, but we want to encourage you to get deeper into the Word of God and not depend on what others tell you it means. There is no better way to dig deeper than to do word studies. Take a good concordance of the Bible that lists the reference to every word used in the Bible and track its usage in each context. Strong's Concordance is the best because every word is given a number. This will help to give you a better idea of the concept God was conveying in naming Himself or His Son by this title or name. We have given the key word with Strong's numbering system. We know this is time consuming, but what better use of your time than to soak your mind in the Word of God.

Bible Study groups can utilize this method to enhance their understanding of the title and then discuss it with other meaningful passages that support that concept. We have deliberately not listed all the passages or references to save on space, but when you study please do not take short-cuts. Look up every passage. It will help you get a better feel for the words and concepts.

“Developing Intimacy with God”

“Spending Time Alone With God” is the first of Pastor Dick’s books on prayer and intimacy with God. It’s the story of his own struggle to pray and stay in the presence of God without getting bored and sleepy. God led him to a prayer pattern that has been effective in his own prayer journey and has proved useful to many others over the last 25 years. Now it is available to you too. It’s more than a book. It’s more like a training manual with disciplines to work at in your own prayer life. It will transform the way you pray!

A Brazilian Portuguese Version in E-Book format will be available in 2014.

“3-Minutes Alone with God” is a follow-up to “Spending Time Alone With God.” It gives you helps and tools for your prayer life that will make praying more enjoyable and exciting. Included in this book is a workbook to help you develop prayer skills. The workbook portion is also available online in an 8 ½ x 11 format, ideal for printing your own copies. It is free of charge.
