HOW TO MEMORIZE SCRIPTURE

Memorization is not easy. It takes work and determination. Most of us as we grow older stop memorizing, so we are out of practice. Here are some hints to help you memorize.

1. Let your mind take a picture of the verse where it appears in your Bible. Read the Scripture over carefully. Read it in the context. Get the sense of the verse.
2. Read it out loud often every day. Let your ears hear it. Read it out loud often through the day.
3. Write the verse on a 3x5 card and keep it with you, in a pocket or purse. Pull it out when you are at a stop light. Pull it out when you go to the bathroom.
4. Repeat it over and over out loud. "Repetition penetrates the dullest of minds." If you repeat it and hear it enough, it will stick.
5. Gradually erase some words and leave blanks for your mind to fill in.
6. Have a friend or family member you can quote the verse to in order to test yourself.

It is not going to be easy to remember all 52 verses in one sitting. May I suggest that you do your memory work by quarters, that is, at the end of every month sit down and write out the verses you have finished memorizing. It is okay to have each verse address before you.
